

ENVIRONMENTAL PROFESSIONAL

Organizational Overview:

Since 2005, KJ Environmental Management, Inc. has specialized in environmental consulting services to mining, industrial, oil and gas, real estate, and commercial clients. We work with companies, investment groups, state and federal government entities, and with commercial property owners to provide strategic planning, civil engineering, due diligence, problem solving, environmental compliance, and environmental permitting.

Position Overview:

The Environmental Project Manager/Environmental Professional position is a full-time position that offers a positive, self-motivated person a unique opportunity to be a part of a growing business in a very dynamic, rewarding field. This position offers a balance of time between in office report writing and field work.

Key Responsibilities: (including, but not limited to):

Phase I ESAs, Phase II ESAs, Remediation, SPCCs, SWP3s, Tier IIs, NORM Surveys, Asbestos Inspections, and Providing Client Training.

This candidate must have a good oral and written communication skills. Must show proficiency with time management, deadlines, and budgets. Must have an understanding of manufacturing processes, and be able to perform independent research and mathematical calculations. This positions will require up to 25% travel. This position may require managing others.

Requirements:

Environmental Science or similar educational background, Exceptional Oral and Written Skills, Positive Team Working Attitude. Adobe Acrobat, Excel, Microsoft Word experience required. HAZWOPER preferred. A 4 year degree is required. Phase I, Phase II, and Remediation experience required. 3+ years experience required.

Please send resumes to dena@kjenvironmental.com.