

2900 KEMP RANCH CROSSING | MIDLOTHIAN, TX | 75065 | 1.800.721.4147

EH&S Manager

Responsible for the leadership, development, implementation, and ongoing management of environmental, health and safety programs for Buckley's North Texas chemical & lubricant distribution facilities. The successful candidate will ensure that programs meet all regulatory requirements, safety initiatives, and company policies. This person will perform a variety of EH&S tasks including, but not limited to:

- Source of knowledge concerning Federal, State, and local rules and regulations pertaining to environmental and safety regulations as well as good industry practice.
- Serve as Code Coordinator for Buckley's Responsible Distribution program (NACD)
- Plan and administer health and safety programs to reduce employee/employer risk.
- Develop and provide appropriate training to employees related to implemented EHS programs.
- Administer environmental compliance activities such as tracking and reporting.
- Performs plant audits and internal inspections to assess OSHA and environmental compliance and develop corrective/preventive actions and track to completion.
- Administers facility and distribution center DOT Hazardous Materials program.
- Manages JSA/JHA, PHA, PPE, and near-miss, incident, and accident investigation programs.
- Investigates all EHS compliance issues with line supervision and staff findings and recommendations to plant manager. Guides and assists plant with resolution of environmental, safety and health issues.
- Generate & maintain regulatory documents critical to daily operations.
- Manages monthly Safety Steering Committee and Supervisors safety meetings to improve plant safety.

Qualifications required:

- BS degree, preferably in safety or environmental science and 3+ years of related experience
- Computer literacy with knowledge of word processing and spreadsheet software
- Strong interpersonal skills
- Knowledge of Federal and State regulations including air programs, hazardous waste management, hazardous material management, OSHA general industry, DOT requirements.

